Of Creater Indianapolis, Inc.

September 11, 2019

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hunsley,

It is such a pleasure to give you a monthly update on the activities of our Young Champion classes. As we await another school year to begin in October in various schools across the city, Nick Bolden has continued to teach and train a group of young men in Anderson, Ind.

This month a new group of volunteers will be trained and we are still waiting to be approved to begin classes in the Mooresville school system. Because of the annual turnover of administrations, principals, teachers and students each year brings new excitement to see where God allows us to minister and to whom we will minister.

The Young Champion classes through three different Youth organizations has been serving the students of Indy for over 40 years. By God's grace and your help we will continue to do so with great commitment and enthusiasm.

God bless you for your encouragement and support,

Greg A. Dixon
