OBJECTIVE

To acquire optimum knowledge in the areas of community cultivation, theoretical approaches to leadership, and conflict resolution models. I would like to continue to explore the social and cultural conceptualizations that can effectively assist clients of all ages in their relational balance in community advocacy.

SKILLS

I excel in individualized and group curriculum development. I can assess a person or a group and determine the cognitive scaffolding devices to enrich family fulfillment. Also, I can provide experiential tools to assist clients in self-improvement and social wealth attainability.

EXPERIENCE

LIFELINE • FAMILY CONSULTANT • 2017 – 2019

I work to navigate, facilitate, and negotiate parents and children reunifications. I assist parents and children in the process of relational development and communication enrichment. I provide clients with supervised, unsupervised, and case management services.

SOCIAL SERVICES CURRICULUM WRITER TRIPGEAR LLC • 1995 – 2021

I supervised a staff of thirty teachers, counselors, artist, and master peer mentors. coordinated personnel and wrote curriculum for intra/interpersonal enrichment at forty-three K-12 schools in Gary, Indiana and Indianapolis Public Schools. I wrote conflict resolutions programs for alternative schools, YMCA, Goodwill, and the Marion County Juvenile Center. I provided holistic pedagogy for the Hamilton County Jail, Peers Project, and In School Suspension (ISS) in Gary and Indianapolis schools.
